April 26 8:00am-4:00pm

Keynote Speaker: Kate Larson

Kate loves life and has made it her mission to help you fall passionately in love with yours. As an executive and wellness coach, she is an extremely creative and engaging facilitator and speaker with considerable experience in coaching corporations. She is also very compassionate and intuitive, and uses this skill to engage her listeners. Her high-energy presentations encourage audience participation and are designed to feed the heart and mind. They are also power-packed with a lot of laughter as she is extremely funny.

A 20-year plus executive coach veteran, Kate Larsen, MCC and CWC, has achieved the ICF designation of Master Coach Certification (MCC). She has trained thru CoachU, Corporate CoachU, and the Coaches Training Institute.

Kate is a successful entrepreneur, consultant, international speaker, addictions counselor, author, fitness instructor, happy wife and mother of three.#
